ABOUT NSHAMA

A clear vision

Four years ago, we began our journey to the forefront of residential property development.
We believe in creating some of Dubai's most inspiring communities in which to live. We have a driving passion for delivering high-quality, award-winning, community-led mixed-use developments.

Today, our ambition for Nshama has not changed. It drives everything we do. Dubai continues to inspire and excite us, leading to two iconic developments. Still privately-owned and run by Fred Durie and Abdul-Rahman Juma AlFalasi, our strong foundation means we've been able to progress and expand the business significantly, while our impeccable standards set new benchmarks for quality.

We are proud of the past four years and what we've achieved.

We are even prouder of what's to come.
